The Editor

Makes copy while

The printer sets

It up in style ;

The pressman brings

It clean and neat

A newsy en-

Tertaining sheet—

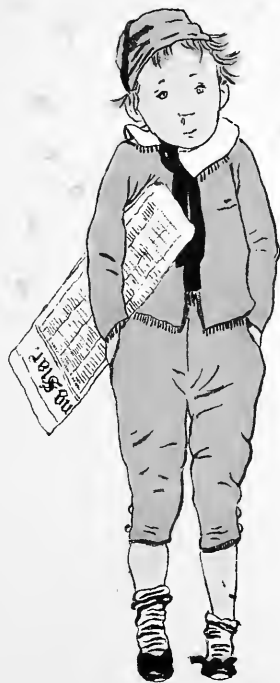

Some of the man—

Y folks these are

Who help get out

The daily Star.

The carrier-lad

His bundle takes,
His daily trip

He swiftly makes,
Nor heeds what weath-

Er may prevail,
With him there's no

Such word as "fail."
Though stormy 'tis

As Arctic clime,
Your Ev'ning Star

Will be on time.

The father reads

The daily news

And notes with care

The statesmen's views.

He reads finance

With all the rest,

He has some wealth

He would invest,

For in The Star

This parent wise

Believes it pays

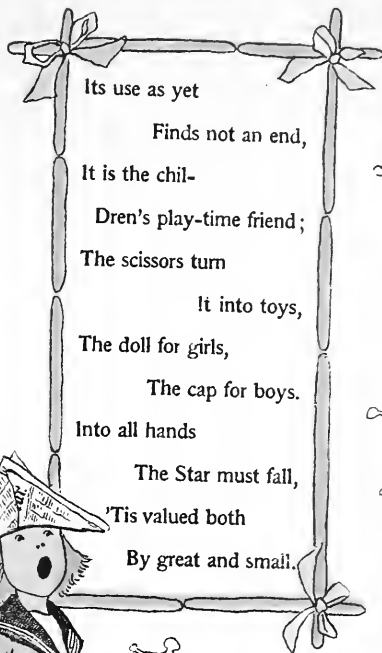

To advertise.

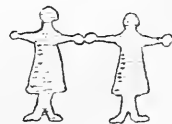

The mother takes
The paper then—
'Tis meant for her
As well as men;
She reads the news
With proper care
And gives the "ads."
Of time a share,
For well she knows
That bargains are Discovered in
The daily Star

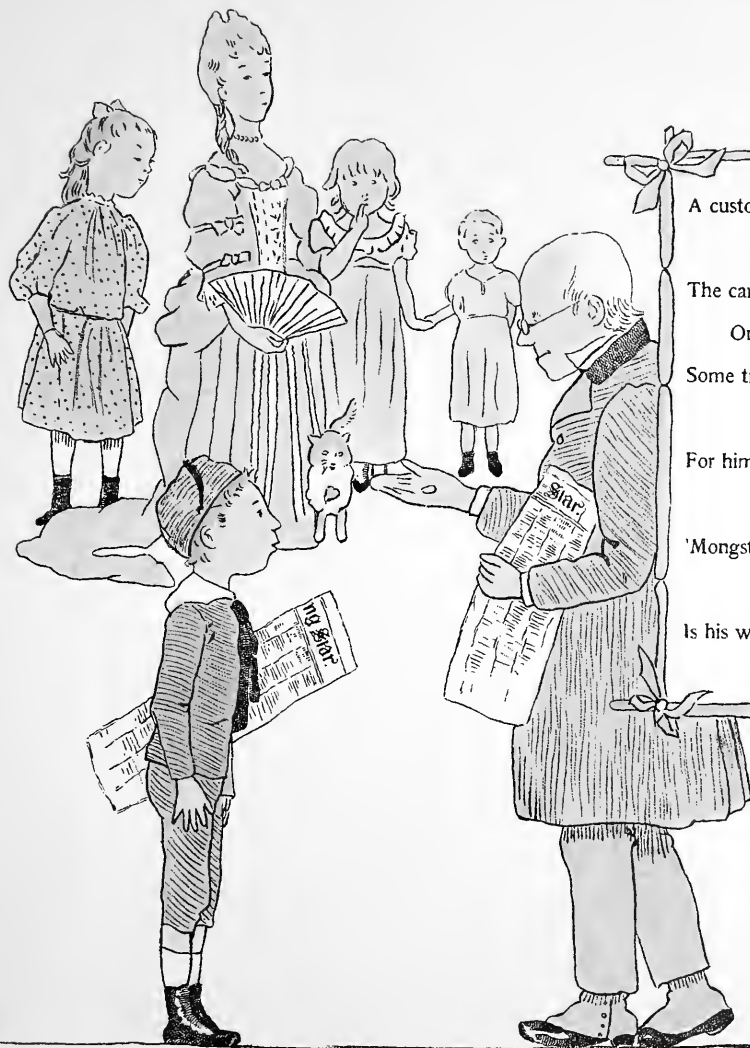

Its use as yet
Finds not an end,
It is the chil-
Dren's play-time friend;
The scissors turn
It into toys,
The doll for girls,
The cap for boys.
Into all hands
The Star must fall,
'Tis valued both
By great and small.

A custom it
Has been to pay
The carrier lad
On New Year's day,
Some trifle to
Insure good cheer
For him who glad-
Dens all the year.
'Mongst many claims
The best by far,
Is his who brings
Your daily Star.
